PAPERWORK/PRIVACY ACT NOTICE

The information requested on this form is authorized by the Social Security Act, sections 205(a) and 1631(e)(A) and (B) (42 U.S.C. § 405(a) and 1382(e) (A) and (B)), and Title 20 CFR 405.1, 405.380, 405.381, 405.383, and 405.427. The information provided will be used to begin a review by the Decision Review Board of an Administrative Law Judge's dismissal of a request for hearing and refusal to vacate that dismissal action. Your response to the questions on this form is voluntary; however, the Social Security Administration (SSA) cannot review the dismissal action on your claim unless the information is furnished. While the information you furnish on this form would almost never be used for any purpose other than making a determination on the propriety of the dismissal action, such information may be disclosed by SSA as generally permitted under 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b) of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended. This includes using the information as necessary for administrative purposes authorized by routine uses in the applicable Privacy Act system of records. For example, SSA may disclose information to other agencies such as the Government Accountability Office or to the Department of Justice to comply with Federal Laws requiring the release of information from our records. SSA may also use the information you give us when we match records by computer. Matched programs compare SSA records with those of other Federal, State, or local government agencies. Many agencies may use matching programs to find or prove that a person qualifies for benefits paid by the Federal government. The law allows SSA to do this even if you do not agree to it. Explanations about possible reasons why information you provide us may be used or given out are available upon request from any Social Security office.

Please see revised Privacy Act Statement below.

Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 205(a) and 1631(e)(A) and (B) (42 U.S.C. § 405(a) and 1382(e) (A) and (B)) of the Social Security Act, as amended, and Title 20 CFR 405.1, 405.380, 405.381, 405.383, and 405.427, authorize us to collect this information. The information you provide will be used to begin a review by the Decision Review Board of an Administrative Law Judge's dismissal of a request for hearing and refusal to vacate that dismissal action.

The information you furnish on this form is voluntary. However, failure to provide this requested information could prevent the Social Security Administration from reviewing the dismissal action on your claim.

We rarely use the information you supply for any purpose other than for making a determination on the propriety of the dismissal action. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of Social Security programs. We may also disclose information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, which include but are not limited to the following:

1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist Social Security in establishing rights to Social Security benefits and/or coverage;
2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from Social Security records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans' Affairs);
3. To make determinations for eligibility in similar health and income maintenance programs at the Federal, State, and local level; and,
4. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to assure the integrity and improvement of Social Security programs (e.g., to the Bureau of the Census and private concerns under contract to Social Security).

We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local government agencies. Information from these matching programs can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federally-funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of payments or delinquent debts under these programs.

A complete list of routine uses for this information is available in our Systems of Records Notices entitled, Administrative Law Judge Working File on Claimant Cases, 60-0005. These notices, additional information regarding this form, and information regarding our programs and systems, are available on-line at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.
