Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 202(b) and (g) [42 U.S.C. 402(b) and (g)] of the Social Security Act authorize us to collect this information. We will use the information you provide to confirm past and continuing entitlement to benefits and to determine whether such benefits are subject to suspension or termination. The information you provide on this form is voluntary. However, failure to provide all or part of the requested information is cause for us to suspend your benefit payments.

We rarely use the information you provide on this form for any purpose other than for the reasons explained above. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of Social Security programs. We may also disclose information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, which include but are not limited to the following: 1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist Social Security in establishing rights to Social Security benefits and/or coverage; 2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from Social Security records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office, General Services Administration, National Archives Records Administration, and the Department of Veterans Affairs); 3. To make determinations for eligibility in similar health and income maintenance programs at the Federal, State, and local level; and 4. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to assure the integrity of Social Security programs.

We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local government agencies. Information from these matching programs can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federally-funded and administered benefit programs for repayment of payments or delinquent debts under these programs. The law allows us to do this even if you do not agree to it.

A complete list of routine uses for this information is available in our System of Records Notice entitled, Claims Folder System, 60-0089.
